ATTEMPTED MURDER INVESTIGATION

RIVERSIDE, CA – On Saturday, November 25, 2017, at approximately 8:36 p.m., Riverside Police officers responded to the intersection of Aralia Drive and Gibson Street, in the Arlington South neighborhood of Riverside, to a report of a subject down in the roadway. When they arrived along with members of the Riverside Fire Department, officers located the male victim who was unresponsive. The subject was transported to local hospital where he remains in critical condition.

Personnel from the Robbery - Homicide Unit responded to the scene. Through their investigation, detectives determined the victim had been in a physical altercation with Mark McMichael, 35-years-old of Riverside. McMichael was arrested and later booked into Robert Presley Detention Center for attempted murder.

This investigation is ongoing and there are no other details available at this time. Detectives are asking for anyone with information regarding this incident to contact Detective Karla Beler at (951) 353-7138 or kbeler@riversideca.gov, or Detective Adrian Tillett at (951) 353-7105 or atillet@riversideca.gov. Those wishing to remain anonymous can email rpdtips@riversideca.gov or utilize the Riverside Police Department's mobile app "Submit at Tip" feature while referencing incident number P17212801.
